

FARS OPEN DAY

September 2017

Weekend!

We are excited to announce that we will be staging our first ever open day at Woolly Park Farm in September ... in fact it will be an open weekend.

We are going to hold it over the weekend of Saturday, 2nd & Sunday 3rd September 2017 between 11.30am and 4.00pm on both days.

We will be giving guided tours of the sanctuary to meet all the animals - from our new intake of lambs to old stagers like Bob, Timmy and Gretel the pig - you will also be able to meet Carole, the owner, and we will be having a small marquee with some vegan food (some donated by those wonderful people at Fry's) and FARS merchandise available to purchase. In addition we will be holding a tombola and raffle.

We would like to see as many supporters as possible visit us - whether or not you have been before - but as our parking facilities at the sanctuary are a little restricted, we are requesting potential visitors book in please.

Though we will obviously accommodate any supporters who turn up unannounced, logistically it would be easier for us to stagger visitor numbers to workable levels. Therefore we are trying to have three different visitor sessions each day, at 11.30am, 1pm and 2.30pm. An hour and a half for each session should be enough to see around the sanctuary, have a bite to eat and look at our merchandise.

If you would like to book in for either day, please contact Mike Berry on 07733-682005 or email him at minorbez@aol.com. Please keep in mind that conditions underfoot can get tricky if it is a wet weekend, so please come prepared with appropriate footwear. You will, of course, be welcome to take photographs of yourself with the animals.

If you can't attend, but would like to donate either a raffle or tombola prize, or make a monetary donation, then please contact Mike Berry. He will be very happy to hear from you.
